About Bruntwood

Bruntwood is a business led by one purpose: Creating Thriving Cities. Our deep connection with the cities we work in sets us apart; and over more than forty years, everything we have achieved has been with this purpose in mind.

We create outstanding buildings, workspace, innovation, retail and science facilities that are healthier, better connected, more vibrant, sustainable, inclusive and economically empowered. Places people want to live, work and play in.

Today, Bruntwood SciTech owns and manages the largest portfolio of science and technology assets in the UK including prestigious locations like Manchester Science Park in Manchester, Alderley Park in Cheshire and Platform in Leeds.

Bruntwood Works is changing the way people work by creating and curating inspiring environments that help people and business to thrive across Manchester, Leeds, Liverpool and Birmingham.

About Bruntwood

We aim to reflect the communities we work in. Doing so brings huge benefits to us all: a wealth of opinion; innovative and creative ideas; an interesting working environment; exciting new talent; and a better understanding of our customers and communities. All of this helps us to see the world differently and make sure it's shaped for the benefit of everyone.

This is why we're committed to investing in these areas where our expertise and passion can make the most impact. Bruntwood donates around 10% of annual operating profits directly to local good causes and through the Oglesby Charitable Trust and is proud to support the Manchester International Festival and the Bruntwood Prize for Playwriting amongst many others. Every investment we make is really an investment in our colleagues, our customers and the communities we're all part of, because when our cities thrive, so do we.

Since 1976 this approach has helped us to grow into a company with more than £1bn in assets under ownership across more than 100 landmark properties, a development pipeline of £1.4bn, and a team of more than 750 people working across our group.

At Bruntwood, space is just the start of the story. We Create Thriving Cities.
